

T3B08 (C) [97.305(c)]

Which of the bands available to Technician class licensees have mode restricted sub-bands?

- A. The 6-meter, 2-meter, and 70-centimeter bands
- B. The 2-meter and 13-centimeter bands
- C. The 6-meter, 2-meter, and 1 1/4-meter bands
- D. The 2-meter and 70-centimeter bands

T3B09 (A) [97.305 (a)(c)]

What emission modes are permitted in the restricted sub-band at 50.0-50.1 MHz?

- A. CW only
- B. CW and RTTY
- C. SSB only
- D. CW and SSB

T3B10 (A) [97.305 (a)(c)]

What emission modes are permitted in the restricted sub-band at 144.0-144.1 MHz?

- A. CW only
- B. CW and RTTY
- C. SSB only
- D. CW and SSB

T3C01 (A)

What is the proper way to break into a conversation between two stations that are using the frequency?

- A. Say your call sign between their transmissions
- B. Wait for them to finish and then call CQ
- C. Say "Break-break" between their transmissions
- D. Call one of the operators on the telephone to interrupt the conversation

T3C02 (D)

What is considered to be proper repeater operating practice?

- A. Monitor before transmitting and keep transmissions short
- B. Identify legally
- C. Use the minimum amount of transmitter power necessary
- D. All of these answers are correct

T3C03 (A)

What should you do before responding to another station's call?

- A. Make sure you are operating on a permissible frequency for your license class
- B. Adjust your transmitter for maximum power output
- C. Ask the station to send their signal report and location
- D. Verify the other station's license class