

T2C03 [97.205(a)]

What minimum class of amateur license must you hold to be a control operator of a repeater station?

- A. Technician Plus
- B. Technician
- C. General
- D. Amateur Extra

T2C04 [97.3(a)(12)]

Who is responsible for the transmissions from an amateur station?

- A. Auxiliary operator
- B. Operations coordinator
- C. Third-party operator
- D. Control operator

T2C05 [97.7]

When must an amateur station have a control operator?

- A. Only when training another amateur
- B. Whenever the station receiver is operated
- C. Whenever the station is transmitting
- D. A control operator is not needed

T2C06 [97.3]

What is the control point of an amateur station?

- A. The on/off switch of the transmitter
- B. The input/output port of a packet controller
- C. The variable frequency oscillator of a transmitter
- D. The location at which the control operator function is performed

T2C07 [97.109(d)]

What type of amateur station does not require a control operator to be at the control point?

- A. A locally controlled station
- B. A remotely controlled station
- C. An automatically controlled station
- D. An earth station controlling a space station

T2C08 [97.3(a)]

What are the three types of station control permitted and recognized by FCC rule?

- A. Local, remote and automatic control
- B. Local, distant and automatic control
- C. Remote, distant and unauthorized control
- D. All of the choices are correct