

T8B01 (D)

What can you do to be prepared for an emergency situation where your assistance might be needed?

- A. Check at least twice a year to make sure you have all of your emergency response equipment and know where it is
- B. Make sure you have a way to run your equipment if there is a power failure in your area
- C. Participate in drills that test your ability to set up and operate in the field
- D. All of these answers are correct

T8B03 (A)

What is the primary function of RACES in relation to emergency activities?

- A. RACES organizations are restricted to serving local, state, and federal government emergency management agencies
- B. RACES supports agencies like the Red Cross, Salvation Army, and National Weather Service
- C. RACES supports the National Traffic System
- D. RACES is a part of the National Emergency Warning System

T8B05 (C) [97.407(a)]

What organization must you register with before you can participate in RACES activities?

- A. A local amateur radio club
- B. A local racing organization
- C. The responsible civil defense organization
- D. The Federal Communications Commission

T8B02 (C) [97.403]

When may you use your amateur station to transmit a "SOS" or "MAYDAY" signal?

- A. Only when you are transmitting from a ship at sea
- B. Only at 15 and 30 minutes after the hour
- C. When there is immediate threat to human life or property
- D. When the National Weather Service has announced a weather warning

T8B04 (B)

What is the primary function of ARES in relation to emergency activities?

- A. ARES organizations are restricted to serving local, state, and federal government emergency management agencies
- B. ARES supports agencies like the Red Cross, Salvation Army, and National Weather Service
- C. ARES groups work only with local school districts
- D. ARES supports local National Guard units

T8B06 (B)

What is necessary before you can join an ARES group?

- A. You are required to join the ARRL
- B. You must have an amateur radio license
- C. You must have an amateur radio license and have Red Cross CPR training
- D. You must register with a civil defense organization